1. Korean members of the Tientsin detachment of the Chinese Communist 4 Field Army state that the USSR has ordered the Chinese Communists to dispatch 200,000 troops to North Korea for an early attack on South Korea. The main force is to be Koreans, with troop deficiencies to be supplied by Chinese Communist troops. The great improvement in South Korean economic, military and political fields is reported to be the reason for the attack.
2. The Chinese Communist 38 and 39 Armies of the 4 Field Army have been transferred to the Northeast and are en route to Korea.
3. Beginning on 5 April 1950, Soviet troops have been transferred from the Far East Military District of Siberian USSR into Northeast China. Passenger trains on the Chungchang railway were suspended during the week beginning 18 April and all points on the railway line were put under martial law to insure the security of troop movements.
4. It is reported that 100,000 Soviet troops, including 15,000 Japanese troops, are stationed in Liaoning, Liaopel and Antung, under the command of Miyarov. All of these troops are well equipped with heavy artillery and tanks.
